

Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee

- The objectives of a nominating & corporate governance committee, are as follows:
 - To identify individuals qualified to become new board members and recommending to the board the new director nominees for the next annual meeting of shareholders.
 - To make its recommendations, the nominating committee should consider:
 - (a) the competencies and skills that the board considers to be necessary for the board, as a whole, to possess;
 - (b) the competencies and skills that the board considers each existing director to possess; and
 - (c) the competencies and skills each new nominee will bring to the boardroom.
 - The primary objectives of the corporate governance committee are to assist the Board by developing and recommending to the Board a set of effective corporate governance policies and procedures applicable to the Company.
- The nominating & corporate governance committee should be composed entirely of independent directors.
- The nominating & corporate governance committee should have a written charter that clearly establishes the committee's purpose, responsibilities, member qualifications, member appointment and removal, structure and operations (including any authority to delegate to individual members and subcommittees), and manner of reporting to the board. In addition, the nominating committee should be given authority to engage and compensate any outside advisor that it determines to be necessary to permit it to carry out its duties. If an issuer is legally required by contract or otherwise to provide third parties with the right to nominate directors, the selection and nomination of those directors need not involve the approval of an independent nominating committee.

GOVEX URANIUM INC.
NOMINATING & CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE
CHARTER

I. Purpose

The primary objective of the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of GoviEx Uranium Inc. (the “Company”) is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by (a) identifying individuals qualified to become Board and Board Committee members and recommending that the Board select director nominees for appointment or election to the Board; and (b) developing and recommending to the Board corporate governance guidelines for the Company and making recommendations to the Board with respect to corporate governance practices.

II. Organization

The Committee shall consist of directors of the Company as determined by the Board, each of whom shall satisfy the laws governing the Company and the independence requirements of applicable securities law, stock exchange and any other regulatory requirements.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board. All members shall have a working familiarity with corporate governance practices. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. A majority of the members of the Committee shall be empowered to act on behalf of the Committee. The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate.

III. Meetings

The Committee shall meet as many times as the Committee deems necessary to carry out its duties effectively, but not less frequently than once per year.

The Committee shall be chaired by an independent, outside member of the Board who is appointed by the Board. The Chair of the Committee will preside at each meeting of the Committee and, in consultation with the other members of the Committee, shall set the frequency and length of each meeting and the agenda of items to be addressed at each upcoming meeting.

The chair of the Committee shall ensure that the agenda for each upcoming meeting of the Committee is circulated to each member of the Committee and to the other directors in advance of such meeting.

IV. Authority and Responsibilities

To fulfill its responsibilities, the Committee shall:

1. Examine the size and composition of the Board and recommend adjustments from time to time to ensure that the Board is of a size and composition that facilitates effective decision making.
2. Identify and assess the necessary and desirable competencies and characteristics for Board membership and regularly assess the extent to which those competencies and characteristics are represented on the Board.
3. Develop and implement processes to identify and assess necessary and desirable competencies and characteristics for Board members.
4. Identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board.
5. Make recommendations to the Board for the appointment or election of director nominees.
6. Make recommendations to the Board with respect to membership on committees of the Board (other than the Committee).
7. Make recommendations to the Board with respect to potential successors to the Chief Executive Officer.
8. Ensure that Board has appropriate structures and procedures so that the Board can function with the proper degree of independence from management.
9. Provide a forum without management present to receive expressions of concern, including a concern regarding the independence of the Board from management.
10. Regularly review the time required from non-executive directors to perform their functions and assess whether they are satisfying those time requirements.
11. Establish induction programmes for new directors.
12. Make recommendations, from time to time, to the Board with respect to the continuing education of Board members.
13. Ensure succession plans are in place to maintain an appropriate balance of skills on the board and periodically review those plans.
14. Recommend the removal of directors for cause.
15. Receive comments from all directors as to the Board's performance; oversee the execution of a process assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the Board committees, and the contribution of individual directors, and report annually to the Board on such assessments.

16. Prepare and recommend to the Board the corporate governance policies and procedures for the Company. Review practices and procedures of the Board in light of ongoing developments in securities law, stock exchanges and regulatory requirements, and industry best practices, relating to matters of corporate governance. Review and reassess the adequacy of the Company's corporate governance policies, practices and procedures annually and recommend to the Board any changes deemed appropriate by the Committee.
17. Review any proposed changes to the Company's articles and by-laws as such documents relate to corporate governance matters.
18. Ensure systems are in place to verify compliance with regulatory, corporate governance and disclosure requirements.
19. Review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend to the Board any changes deemed appropriate by the Committee.
20. Fulfill the Committee's role in assisting the Board in dealing with conflict of interest issues as contemplated by the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.
21. At the request of an individual director, consider and, if deemed advisable, authorize the retaining by any individual director of an outside advisor for such director at the expense of the Corporation.
22. Perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, the Company's articles and by-laws and governing law as the Committee or the Board deems appropriate.
23. Review the performance of the Committee annually.
24. Report regularly to the Board.
25. Oversee evaluations of the Board and the Company's management.

V. Resources

The Committee shall have ability to engage external advisors as it sees fit, including (i) the sole authority to determine the extent of funding necessary for payment of compensation to any search firm and the authority to determine the extent of funding necessary for payment of compensation to any other professionals retained to advise the Committee; and (ii) the sole authority to retain and terminate a search firm to be used to identify director candidates and the authority to retain other professionals to assist it with any background checks.

VI. Appointing new directors

In fulfilling its responsibilities to identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board, the Committee will consider (i) the independence of each nominee; (ii) the experience and background of each nominee; (iii) having a balance of skills for the Board and its committees to meet their respective mandates; (iv) the past performance of directors being considered for re-election; (v) applicable regulatory requirements; and (vi) such other criteria as may be established by the Board or the Committee from time to time.

Each nominee will be considered on the basis of merit and suitably extensive enquiries to find candidates should be made, including:

- (a) regularly assessing and identifying the necessary and desirable skills, experience and knowledge for board members;
- (b) regularly assessing and identifying the skills, experience and knowledge represented on the board and those desired;
- (c) regularly assessing and determining the time commitment needed from each board member to adequately perform his or her duties;
- (d) making suitable inquiries of others (which may include professional executive search and recruitment consultants) for candidates;
- (e) interviewing each candidate and conducting background and reference checks;
- (f) ensuring that each candidate has the necessary skills, experience and knowledge to perform his or her duties and responsibilities as a director and is able to devote the time necessary to perform those duties and responsibilities.
